

M A R / A P R 2 0 2 1

Playful Piano

Happy Almost Spring!

Enjoy the changing of the seasons... and enjoy piano in as many ways as you can think of to celebrate Piano Day! For example, one of my students is teaching her younger brother to play piano. Is there a song you could teach to a friend or family member? Enjoy sharing this incredible instrument!

Playfully, Ms. Agnes

“Music in the soul can be heard by the universe”

Lao Tzu

Steinway Piano Party

The Steinway Piano Party was a great success! Thank you for participating with your beautiful playing and creative compositions. A special thanks to Lester for putting together a wonderful Steinway Grand presentation. Congratulations to Julia for winning the Steinway Trivia Game!

Our next Piano Party will be an Adult Piano Party - watch for date/time details.

Improvisation

This term we'll be focusing on improvisation in our lessons – making up music on the piano on the spot! Here are a few tips:

Advanced:

<https://www.musicnotes.com/now/tips/piano-improvisation-how-to-develop-improv-in-a-fun-way/>

Beginner:

<https://www.myfunpianostudio.com/snowflake-piano-improv-technique-for-kids/>

Celebrate Piano Day!

The 88th Day of each year is Piano Day - chosen because of the number of keys on the piano. This year it falls on March 27, 2021. Check out this website for ideas on how to celebrate:

<https://www.pianoday.org/>